

Contra Costa Mosquito & Vector Control District Code Enforcement Workshop

June 18, 2014

Agenda

- A. Sign-in
 - a. Turn in list of current Code Enforcement officers in your city/jurisdiction
 - b. Turn in copy of policies for public nuisance, vermin, and vectors
- B. Welcome
 - a. Craig Downs – General Manager
 - b. How the District and Code Enforcement can work together
- C. The Contra Costa Mosquito & Vector Control District
 - a. Andrew Pierce – Community Affairs Representative
 - i. District Services
 - ii. Challenges
 - 1. Abandoned Houses
 - a. Neglected Swimming Pools
 - b. Squatters
 - 2. Hoarding
 - 3. New Mosquito Species in California
 - iii. The Importance of a Partnership between the District and Code Enforcement
- D. Vertebrate Procedures
 - a. Jonathan Rehana – Vertebrate Program Supervisor
 - i. Inspections and Control Services
 - ii. Challenges
 - 1. Abandoned Houses
 - a. Squatters
 - 2. Hoarding
 - iii. Written Reports for Code Enforcement
 - iv. Q & A

E. Mosquito Procedures

- a. Greg Howard – Mosquito Program Supervisor
 - i. Inspections and Control Services
 - ii. Residential Challenges
 - 1. Abandoned Houses
 - a. Swimming Pools
 - b. Mosquitofish
 - c. Dead Birds
 - iii. Written Reports for Code Enforcement
 - iv. Q & A

F. Accessing District Services

- a. Ray Waletzko – Assistant Manager
 - i. Requesting District Service
 - 1. Contact the District
 - 2. Visit the District Website
 - 3. Written Reports for Code Enforcement

G. Questions and Answers

H. District Tour

- a. Deborah Bass – Public Affairs Manager
 - i. Vector Laboratory
 - 1. Meet District Entomologist Steve Schutz, Ph.D.
 - ii. One-of-a-kind Mosquitofish rearing facility
 - 1. Meet District Fish Biologist Chris Miller